

Disclosure of Interests – for the Conflicts Register

Conflict of Interest

Thrive defines conflict of interest as any situation where there is a potential for the personal or business interests of any of Thrive’s Directors, staff, consultants and volunteers (or the interests of someone they are connected with) to be different from the interests of Thrive.

To comply with the above and avoid any potential conflicts of interest, please provide details of all your interests and those of your spouse, partner or immediate family. This form should be completed at least annually and held in a Conflicts of Interest Register. It is the responsibility of individuals to provide an updated form whenever any changes arise.

Details of all employments and consultancies, stating name and nature of employer or business, job title, and whether sole trader or partner
Details of any business in which you, spouse, partner or immediate family have a significant or controlling interest
Details of any other business connection which a reasonable person would think might influence your decision on whether or not to do business with that organisation
Details of your proposed management of any potential conflict of interest with Thrive’s interests
